

ALLIED FLEET IS RIDDLED IN THE DARDANELLES

Berlin, March 19—(by wireless to London)—A squadron of six British and four French battleships at half past seven o'clock this morning attacked three fortresses of the Dardanelles. At the same time another squadron of the allied fleets commenced operations against three fortresses in Saros Bay. After a fierce artillery duel the hostile ships withdrew at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, but part of the squadron continued its fire until five o'clock from long range at great intervals. The French battleship Bouvet struck a mine at half past two o'clock in the vicinity of the entrance to the straits and sank in three minutes. A British torpedo boat was sunk by the fire from the forts. The British battleship Irresistible was put out of action while another battleship was seriously damaged.

BODIES OF HUMANS COVER PLAIN IN ARMENIA; AWFUL CONDITIONS SEEN

London, March 19—Appalling accounts of conditions in Armenia have reached the officials in London of the Armenian Red Cross fund. The latest recital is from an Armenian doctor named Derderian, who says that the whole plain of Alashgerd is virtually covered with bodies of men, women and children. When the Russian forces retreated from the district the Kurds fell upon the helpless people and shut them up in mosques. The men were killed and the women were carried away to the mountains. The organizers of the Red Cross fund say there are 120,000 destitute Armenians now in the Caucasus.

ALLIES CLAIM THE GERMANS BOXED UP

London, March 19—The apparent failure of Field Marshal von Hindenburg's various attempts to reach Warsaw, the repulse of Russian forces over the East Prussian frontier near Tilsit, and the allied offensive in the West, has, according to British observers, put Germany in a position where she dare not shift any substantial force from either the east or the west.

Although there are rumors of reinforcements being hurried from Poland to France or Belgium to meet the French and British thrusts, military writers in London hold to the opinion that Germany must maintain her present armies in both areas of fighting practically intact. This will necessitate the finding of new forces for both the east and the west if she would effectually meet the increasing strength of her enemies. It is pointed out that the plan to deliver a crushing blow in the theatre and then to rush across the country to the other has miscarried on both fronts. This was seen first in the dash to Paris; second, on the Russian frontier; third, in the battle of Ypres; and then recently in the east as Field Marshal von Hindenburg sought to break through the Russian lines to the Polish capital.

Mystery Surrounds Next Move of Germans
Considerable mystery surrounds the next move of the Germans, although the prevailing belief here is that it will be a big offensive action in the west, probably against the British front.

Great Britain has made no official reply to the German allegation that a British squadron fired on the German cruiser Dresden while she was within the three mile limit of the Channel waters and denied has been forthcoming of the German statement that the Dresden was blown up by her own crew.

The government is proceeding with the plan to mobilize women to replace men needed in the war. Upward of 700 women willing to substitute for men have been registered during the past 24 hours.

U. S. HAS SENT $6,200,000 TO BELGIUM

Hayre, France, March 19.—Via Paris.—Statistics concerning the relief afforded the inhabitants of Belgium up to the end of the month of January give the total contributions of money and provisions as follows:

THAW CASE IS POSTPONED

New York, March 19.—As the result of the various writs and orders sworn out in his behalf and the resultant legal tangle, Harry Kendall Thaw is in no danger of being returned to the state hospital for the criminal insane at Malleawan for at least a month.

BRYAN CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Washington, March 19.—Secretary Bryan celebrated his 55th birthday anniversary today by exchanging ratifications of the peace treaty with Italy with the Italian ambassador, Count Di Cellerio.

Later at his home Secretary Bryan entertained all the employees of his department at his birthday party. He also entertained the cabinet at luncheon.

SUPREME COURT WILL RULE ON SHIPPING OF LIQUOR INTO W. VA.

Washington, March 19.—Preparations have been made for consideration by the supreme court shortly after the Easter recess of litigation involving the constitutionality and interpretation of the Webb-Kenyon liquor law enacted by congress in 1913.

The "drys" contend that the Webb-Kenyon law has withdrawn from interstate shipments of intoxicating liquor consigned to local option territory the protection previously afforded such shipments by the commerce clause of the federal constitution. The "wets" declare the law was merely aimed at "bootlegging" and does not withdraw the commerce clause protection from interstate shipments designed for personal use.

Declare Moratorium On W. Va. State Debts

Charleston, W. Va., Mar. 19.—Payments of general charges on the West Virginia State treasury were suspended this morning by State Auditor John S. Darst and State Treasurer E. L. Long. This action was taken by the two fiscal officers of the State following a conference of the Board of Public Works in which the critical condition of the general revenue fund of the State was discussed.

How long this condition of the State fund will obtain is a matter of conjecture, but State Auditor Darst declared it would probably be the middle of June before the State could resume payments of these general charges on the treasury.

EXCLUDED FROM TWO COUNTRIES ; WANDERS HOMELESS ON ATLANTIC

New York, March 19.—Excluded from America, rejected from Brazil and due apparently to travel the ocean as a guest of the Lamport and Holt line steamers, until the United States immigration authorities concede that he has recovered his mental equilibrium, Nathan Cohen is in New York again today, after having completed two round trips from New York to Buenos Aires. Since last May Cohen has been a wanderer upon the face of the ocean. Asserting that Brazil was his native country, he first arrived in New York in May, 1912. His sanity was questioned and officials ordered his deportation to Rio Janeiro, whence he came. Brazil rejected him and he was carried back to New York. Efforts to land him here were futile and again he made the round trip to Buenos Aires, returning yesterday on board the steamship Vasari. In all he has traveled 35,740 miles on a $17 ticket.

It is now asserted that his mental balance has been restored and an effort was again made to land him here. If it fails he must start south again on March 27.

CARRANZA AND GONZALES HAVE CLASH OVER TAXES

Washington, March 19.—Friction between General Carranza and General Gonzales, local commander at Tampico over the collection of the petroleum production tax, has been caused by the claim of Gonzales that the taxes should be used for local purposes. The state department was advised today. A recent order, it was reported, required all future payments to be made to the general director of the stamp office in Vera Cruz instead of in Tampico.

General Alvarado, governor of Yucatan, has been ordered by Carranza to give adequate protection to all foreigners and their interests, the department was advised today. Reports from Vera Cruz said several Carranza garrisons along the railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico City had been defeated.

CAUGHT IN ENGLISH CHANNEL BY SUBS

Glasgow, Scotland, March 19 (via London)—The British steamer Hyndford was torpedoed today in the English Channel by a German submarine. It is reported that one member of the crew was killed.

London, March 19.—The British steamer Blue Jacket with wheat from Liverpool has been torpedoed by a German submarine off Beachy Head.

The crew took to the boats. The steamer, although badly damaged, remained afloat.

The steamer Hyndford was of 2,775 tons net burden. She was 376 feet long and was built at Port Glasgow in 1905.

The Blue Jacket was of 2,271 tons. She was 336 feet long and belonged to J. L. Thompson and Son, Ltd.

NEW WIRELESS INSTRUMENT WEIGHS BUT EIGHT POUNDS

New York, March 19.—A wireless instrument weighing eight pounds, which was received at Fort Hancock on Sunday, March 14, is the lightest and most powerful instrument yet received. It is a 100-foot instrument without antenna and that it would be valuable in trench warfare. The extreme radius of its operations is said to be 300 miles.

CABINET CONSIDERS PROTEST TO ENGLAND

Washington, March 19.—The note to be sent to Great Britain in the near future, protesting against some features of the British order in council and asking for more detailed information about other features, was taken up at today's cabinet meeting.

The two points considered were the probable effects of the order on American commerce and on the rights of American citizens. Information laid before the president by Secretary Redfield regarding the export trade of the United States since the outbreak of the war was gone over in detail.

It was understood that the president's advisers did not believe the order would have a demoralizing effect on American commerce, because of the continuance of trade with Great Britain, France, and her allies.

The part of the order giving notice that goods suspected of having an enemy destination sent to neutral countries would be liable to seizure, was understood to have been agreed upon as one of the chief points to be protested against.

CHILDREN DIED FROM POISON

A dispatch to the Times gives a list of 25 British officers killed, whose names had not appeared in the official list making a total of 333 officers killed or wounded in the recent fighting.

THE men who built the Panama Canal—thousands of robust, clear thinking, quick-acting workmen, and hundreds of skillful, far-seeing engineers—made thinking easier and labor lighter by chewing tobacco while at work.

For many years men from other countries—non-tobacco chewing men—tried to build the Panama Canal. They couldn't stand the strain, their machines "fell down" at critical moments—their best attempts failed. Our American men tried—men who are "chewers and doers." They built the Panama Canal.

SEEK TO RECOVER

Boston, Mass., March 19.—Arguments in the suit of minority stockholders of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad to recover for the company approximately $102,000,000 alleged to have been wrongfully spent in the purchase of railroad, steamship and trolley enterprises, and in addition double that amount in penalties, were made before the full bench in the supreme judicial court today.

The bill charges that about 1904 Rockefeller, Mullen, Brooks, Barney, Skinner, Miller and Taff, acting in concert with J. Pierpont Morgan, Edwin Milner and L. De Ver Warner, conceived and entered upon a plan to effect a monopoly of all transportation companies operating in New England and certain parts of New York and in acquiring such properties paid large sums in excess of the actual value.

The plaintiffs set forth that under the Sherman law they are entitled to recover for the road three times the amount named in the suit, or $306,000,000.

A POOR BUSINESS.

Der Faderland is a new weekly publication, appearing shortly after the outbreak of the European war, with two purposes in view, to set the German side of that conflict before the American public and "to make it hot" for those who do not hold the same views on the conflict as itself. In its last issue Der Faderland exults that heavy patronage is being withdrawn from those New York papers that are in sympathy with the Allies and mentions one that is losing advertising at the rate of $400,000 a year because of a boycott placed upon it by German merchants. It asserts that this is but a beginning and the boycott will be extended until it covers the country and makes "every enemy of Germany" feel its weight. The statements of Der Faderland are interesting and will be received with astonishment by the American public. That public had conceived the idea that the New York press was dominated, controlled and directed by "the big interests" and their utterances were dictated by the capital that counts on sufficient and ample returns. To learn that this press has honest opinions and the courage to stick to them, even at enormous financial loss, places them on a plane on which they were not before firmly established in public estimation. As for the views themselves, one may or may not agree with them, but in fairness he will have to admit any other paper has just as much right to disagree with Der Faderland as Der Faderland has to differ from it and a boycott for opinion's sake is a mighty bad business all around.

RIPPING HER UP.

Right merrily the present assembly is ripping all to pieces, the work that its immediate predecessor set itself to with such devotion and patriotism. And the strangest part of all is that the world was away pretty much as if nothing out of the ordinary were going on. It is the proof of what was said in these columns awhile back. The best statesmanship consists in giving the people what they want, not what they think they want. For four or five years there was so much braying and howling about progressive legislation that the people became convinced they wanted it. Nobody arose to define progressive legislation. The crank, the fanatic, the reformer, the visionary, the social servicer, the up-lifter proclaimed with mighty voice the saving virtues of their panaceas and labeled their progressive legislation. Noise was taken for merit and they all went into the legislative hopper many of them to emerge in the shape of statutory enactments. Thereupon the people discovered their Ulster had been running on an eccentric and they didn't want any repair of the damaged social unit, they didn't want any uplifting by your boot straps, they'd just been yelling themselves hoarse, but anybody was crazy to think they wanted such fool stuff. Thereupon a rude impingement was enacted by them upon the fellows who believed they were really a-wanting, with the result that today there are 5,000 fellows, hoping against hope, that the civil service clock will not be sliced into ribbons, while 53,757 other fellows each murderously demanding that they be granted the privilege of scattering the ashes of its carcass to the furthest winds that blow. And in the place of the progressive, the social amender and the portentous uplifter, we have at Columbus, the re-actionary, the lobbyist, "the milker", the red-lighter and worse. But you don't hear any representatives of the interests lamenting business is being ruined and the people themselves don't give a darn, so what's the diff?

NEARING A REALITY.

The most satisfying news in The Times these days are the details of the execution of contracts for the construction of the interurban line to Ironton. With the announcement today of the bidders who secured the construction work, these will be practically completed. In a few days, therefore, we can expect to see actual work begun on a project, which for years has been under consideration and the completion of which will be "a consummation most devoutly desired." Portsmouth, though of a recent period making splendid progress, has been hampered considerably through lack of proper traffic service. The interurban will materially improve this and as it is, probably, the shortest forerunner of another line or two, its importance can scarcely be over-stated. It will make us feel more like a city and as towns feel so are they.

We miss a guess if the Willis administration be not fixing up before hand an excuse for a big tax levy.

WHY CERTAINLY NOT.

A MAN AND HOUSEWORK.

(Youngstown Telegram.)

Willow Point, N. Y., has been placed on the map by a man who failed to support his family and was given the option of doing house work or going to the penitentiary for one year. He elected to do the house work but after nine months of pot-walloping, dusting, washing, sewing and setting the milk bottle on the porch, he stole back to the judge and asked for the worst, if there was any such thing.

With a "Here-I-am-judge-please-hang-me" expression he begged to be sent to the penitentiary where the worst he could get was hard labor. He was accommodated and will now rest up for the remaining three months.

THE DIFFERENCE.

(New Castle News.)

A dog is a dog. A cur is a person who circulates stories concerning a woman's character.

AIR PUMPERS.

(New Castle Herald.)

A Wisconsin man was kept alive for weeks by pumping air into him. And there are hundreds of men in this land who are kept alive for years by pumping air into someone else.

A certain county in West Virginia has every election pledged its representative to vote for an excise tax on gas, oil and coal. Surprising! Not a bit. This particular county is one in the state, strange to say, where there is no coal mine, no oil drill and no gas well. The essence of statesmanship is ever to make some one else bear the burden of government; the game of politics to make each voter believe some other one is paying his tax bills.

Just as if the voters hadn't had enough, to say nothing of himself, Bill Salzer announces he is going to run again at the next election.

Looks like the Germans were a little quicker than Kitchener thought and the British are having some real fight out for them with the first of May yet six weeks off.

Josephus Daniels says the navy is now at its most efficient fighting trim of its history. Does anybody believe that makes peace more certain?

Come to think of it, what use on earth is a big navy now-a-days? There hasn't been as much sea fighting in this whole European trouble as the Merriam and Monitor did together in "the late unpleasantness," now happily a half century past.

It is a sad commentary upon the administration of affairs in this section when a private citizen has to employ men at his own expense to fix up main traveled roads. It looks like there ought to be some removals from office.

W. C. T. U.

Meeting

A most enjoyable time was had Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John W. Evans when the president entertained the Evans W. C. T. U. The county president, Mrs. C. C. Coverson, offered some good suggestions and prayed that the union continue with its good work. The next regular meeting will be April 19, 1915 at the residence of Mrs. Grant Metcalf.

Campaign Nears End

The membership campaign between the Pinks and the Blues, which has been going on for several weeks, will close this evening at the meeting of the Daughters of America. Frank H. Schmidt captains the Pinks, and P. W. Quickel the Blues. The contest has provoked keen rivalry and has resulted in several candidates being admitted to the lodge.

THE ADVENTURES OF MINNIE MONKEY

When Minnie Monkey found herself within the circus tent, she said: "I know I'll never get away. I wish that all the children in the whole wide world could know how very bad it feels to disobey."

The Circus Man said: "Come along I'm going to teach you tricks. The first thing you will learn to walk a rope. And next I'll teach you how to dance and how to beat a drum. You won't be long in learning them, I hope."

So Minnie practiced very hard, and soon the Circus Man said: "That is all you'll need to do today. Until it's time for you to eat I think that you may go in with the other animals and play."

He took her to a smaller tent, and though she was so scared, Miss Minnie Monkey had to stop and laugh. She saw all sorts of animals she'd never seen before. The striped zebra and the tall giraffe.

And as she stood and looked at them she heard somebody say: "Good gracious, child, what are you doing here? I'll bet a pint of peanuts you have run away from home; You must get back there instantly, my dear."

And Minnie nearly died of joy to hear a voice she knew. You see it was her Uncle Chimpanzee. "I'm very sure your mother doesn't know that you are here. I'll take you back at once to her," said he.

The animals all gathered round and said: "Oh, yes; but how? The Circus Man will never let you go." The plan that Minnie's uncle had for getting her away I'll tell tomorrow if you care to know.

On next Thursday evening, the annual inspection of the lodge will be made by the district lecturer, Hugh Larnach, of Chillicothe. This will be followed by a banquet and the presentation of jewels to the sixteen past masters of the lodge who had not heretofore been so honored.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments, the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. It also tells us the indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermenting. Thus everything eaten soon in the stomach much like garbage, sour in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a hot balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we heave up gas, we eructate sour to or have heartburn, flatulency, water-brash or nausea. It tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Epsom Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effecting and furthermore, take this for a week. Why? It is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-forming mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Epsom Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and soda, is a harmless salt of nature, for stomach trouble with excellent results.

NEW YORK STOCK
New York, March 19.—No traces of the reactionary tendency recently manifested by the stock market was visible today, the entire list moving upward.
London's long delayed decision to meet the minimum prices fixed by the New York stock exchange seemed to exercise a stimulating effect at the outset of today's local trading. Reading and Lehigh Valley advanced a point, with substantial gains in other active shares. United States Steel was heavily traded in at a moderate gain and the copper group as a whole was at a higher level while the Bessemer Steel made another high record. Specialties also shared in the upward tendency which was attended by a fair degree of activity. More gold imports from Canada were announced.
The London market price revision of the international list not only failed to provoke liquidation from foreign sources but seemed actually to bring about a moderate demand from across the water. Trading fell away in marked manner toward midday, but gains were fully maintained in some instances, notably Bethlehem Steel and the metal shares, higher levels being registered.
Leading railway issues also showed improvement although shares of the western railroads were relatively backward. Heavy sales of New York Central debenture 6's at new low prices was the main feature of an otherwise dull and irregular bond market.
New points of strength developed in the final hour with greater activity in the Pacific and other railway issues. Bethlehem Steel increased its gain to five points. The closing was strong.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, March 19.—Wheat made a fresh advance in price today, influenced by an upward swing in quotations at Liverpool. Argentine shipments were large, but vessel rates from there were said to be rising rapidly and values also, with Italy and Greece competing against Great Britain. Requirements for Italy alone were estimated as being at least 18,500,000 bushels. Prices here after opening 3/4 to 2 1/4 higher, steadied at a moderate reaction from the top side of the range.
Although trade in corn was mainly of a local character, the market was strong owing to sympathy with other grain. Rural offerings to arrive were small. The opening, which varied from a shade to 1/2¢ up, was followed by a substantial further gain.

Oats continued to be in active demand from cash houses. The market was at times almost bare of orders to sell.
Firmness in the hog market steadied provisions. Support, however, was poor.
Increased strength developed in wheat after the reported sinking of a French battleship in the Dardanelles, but the market later suffered a decided drop due largely to assertions that recent export business in flour had been estimated much too high and that a crisis had been reached in the Austro-Italian situation. The close was unsettled at 1/4 to 3/4 under last night.
Slowness of cash corn call led subsequently to a setback. The close was heavy at a shade to 1/4 net decline.

Reasons Why

Rengo Belt

Reducing Corsets

Should Be Your Choice

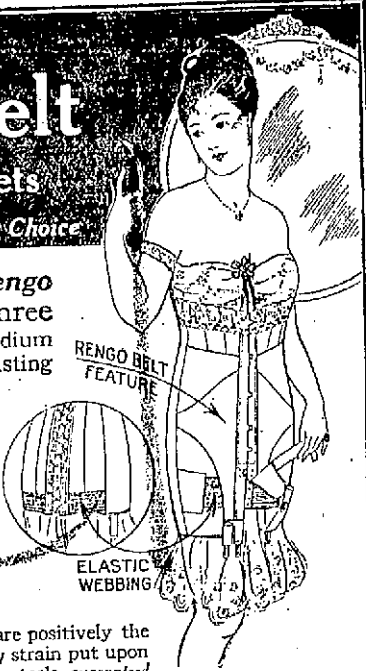

The elastic webbing in Rengo Belt Corsets is one of the three chief reasons why stout and medium heavy women find their only lasting satisfaction in these now famous garments—an elastic freedom with reduction of the appearance of heaviness below the hips. Another reason is the exclusive Rengo Belt feature over the abdomen which has straightened the front line without painful compression and thus given to stout and medium women the true style lines which fashion decrees for the slender woman.

Lastly—Rengo Belt Reducing corsets are positively the strongest corsets made and will stand every strain put upon them. Boned with double watch-spring steels guaranteed not to rust.

get other fellows but I do not want them. What shall I do?

LONELY.
Take the other "fellows". If you don't like to work near him get another job. You are very foolish to try to force your attention on a man who says he can never care for you. Be independent, and pay no attention to him.

Dear Miss Wise—I am 16 years old and I have blue eyes, brown hair and I am tall. What kind of dress would be nice to have for Easter, and what kind of slippers? Would it be nice to have black slippers and white stockings?

JUMPING JACK.
It isn't necessary to get a new dress for Easter unless you need one. Any color of blue or red would look well on you. It will be too cold Easter for slippers. However, if you wear low cuts, black stockings would look better on a girl of your age than white ones.

New Boston.—Dear Dolly.—Could you tell me a good way to dye a light straw hat black? Also have you a good recipe for raisin bread?

A TIMES READER.
You can color it with shoe polish or Colorite. If you put some sugar, an egg and raisins in some of your regular bread dough you will have raisin bread.

Dear Dolly.—As you have helped so many I am coming to you for advice. Now Dolly, I am 20 years old and go with a young man of 22. I love him dearly, but I don't think he cares for me, although he takes me any place I want to go and treats me as nice as any fellow could, but he is writing to another girl and if she would come here do you think he would turn me down for her? I am considered good looking, but I am a poor girl. Dolly do you think that a fellow loves a poor girl just the same as rich girls, if she is respectable and is neat and clean. Now please advise me whether or not to turn him down. There are several fellows I could go with, but I love this one best.

YOUR BLUE EYED FRIEND.
If the man goes with you and takes you around he must care for you. However, you need not go with him exclusively. If other young men want to take you around it would be all right to go with them, since your friend corresponds with another girl. The fact that a girl is poor doesn't make any difference to the majority of men—that is with the worth-while men.

Dear Miss Wise.—About two years ago I was in Portsmouth and was attracted by a bright, mainly, active little newshy. At for buying a paper from him I asked him for his address, which he gave to me. I went to a valuable house that night and was surprised to see the same little fellow doing amateur acts. He was in a boxing match with a much larger boy, but he forced him out and he also walked on his hands and did a great many other little acrobatic stunts. I began to search in my pockets for the little address but had lost it. If you can give me any information concerning the little fellow, it will be appreciated.

A GENTLEMAN.
Perhaps some reader knows this lad's name.

Dear Dolly.—As I am not quite of age could I get a job and work away from home? The reason why my people trouble me very bad and I can't do anything to suit them. They won't let me go anywhere only to Sunday school and back. If I want to go to some place else and I don't think they treat me right at all. My mother is always quarreling with me. Anyone else can get along with me so I don't see why she can't. I am not of a quarrelsome disposition myself.

LONESOME ONE.
You can't leave home until you are of age. Even then you will find it much harder out in the world than you have it at home. I doubt if you could get any kind of work to do at the present time, so be thankful that you have a good home. If you would do as your mother says she would not quarrel with you. A girl of your age is entirely too young to be gadding about from place to place.

SOCIETY

The Home League Club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Lockwood, on Fourth street with an elegantly appointed luncheon. Covers were laid for twenty-five at two large tables decorated with jangle and maraschino. Delicately fingered and served the luncheon. The menu was beautifully served in several courses. Mrs. W. P. Thompson, of Gallipolis, Mrs. J. A. Allen, of Cincinnati, a former club member, and Mrs. W. H. Boer, were guests. Mrs. Isabel Thomas gave a prayer. Mrs. Fred Ward, of Gallipolis, and Mrs. Ransome Lockwood, daughter and daughter-in-law of the hostess, served the luncheon. After the elegant repast Mrs. G. T. Elliott introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. Fred Baker, who proved a most efficient mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. G. T. Elliott responded with a toast, "Looking Backward," and brought out the memory of a spring day, March 10th, 1902, twelve years ago, when the Home League was organized with 22 active and 17 associate members.

Only eight of the original members remain in the club. There have been two deaths, Mrs. Lydia Love and Mrs. William B. Grice. She spoke of the progress the club has made in endeavoring to live up to its motto, "In Essentials, Unity; In Non-essentials, Liberty; and in all things, Charity."

The next speaker, Mrs. J. D. Jordan, the president-elect for 1915-1916, responding with a toast, "Looking Forward," said: "When I look into the future, I pray that we, as an organization of Christian women, may leave our imprint, may count as a mighty factor both intellectually and morally in our community."

The next toast, by Mrs. Filmore Musser, "Our Old Members," was filled with words of praise to the faithful ones who have helped to make the Home League a strong, consistent club, ranking among the best in Portsmouth. She spoke in loving terms of the departure of Mrs. Grice, who was at one time president of the club.

Mrs. Cartwright, one of the club's newest members, responded to "Our New Members." She said: "In all things there is a beginning. Even so are the members of the Home League. We speak not of your brilliancy nor rank, but plead for your loyalty, zeal and integrity. May all your virtues with your years improve, till incommensurate with your shining in succeeding times, a bright example in our club."

Mrs. Zail responded with "Loyalty to Our Club," as follows: "Loyalty, such a little word, yet it stands for all that is good, pure and true in its deepest sense. It is indeed a pleasure to be a member of a club like the Home League, whose members are so loyal to one another and to the club, making it three-fold as the influence reaches out beyond the club. And so with loyalty as our watchword, let us go on and on. On this, the 12th anniversary, knowing so long this power has blessed us, sure it still will lead us on."

Mrs. C. C. Bothwell responded to the toast, "The Social Life of Our Club," telling of the many advantages gained from the social end of the club. Her toast was very clever. Mrs. Chasen responded with a toast on "Reminiscences." She closed with the following toast to the hostess: "And now to the hostess we'll turn for a moment—

"Our own honored president, so cherished and true. There never was a club with so beloved a president. As the dear Home League Club has in you. This day and its pleasures will never be forgotten; 'Twill lessen our sorrows, when sorrows there be. Then here's to our hostess, our own charming hostess. The love and best wishes of the H. L. C."

The roll was called and twenty-three members responded with names of the schools where they were educated.

In an old-fashioned spelling bee, which formed part of the afternoon's amusement, Mrs. John Rottinghaus carried off the honors. Each guest wore something to represent the title of a book, and in a contest they guessed what the titles were.

Mrs. Rottinghaus gave two readings. Mrs. Thomas sang a song of her own composition, assisted by the club. The hostess was lauded a vote of thanks for her hospitality. Mrs. James Kirby was elected to membership. The next meeting will be April first, at Mrs. J. D. Jordan's on Eleventh street. Those present were: Mesdames Fred Baker, C. C. Bothwell, W. R. Bush, Henry Chasen, E. W. Chasen, R. G. Chasen, C. T. Elliott, Charles Hume, J. D. Jordan, F. V. Knapp, George Lockwood, Filmore Musser, J. E. Mr. Adams took the guests to their homes in his automobile.

The Mothers' Jewels of Bigelow Methodist church will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Gladys Selby, on Gallia avenue. Arrangements will be made for a sale to be held April 3rd.

Mrs. Mae White, of Jackson street, Sciotoville, entertained Mrs. Allie Evans' class of the Methodist Sunday school last evening at her home. The decorations were green and white, appropriate to St. Patrick's Day. The pleasures consisted of piano music and charades, after which a delicious repast of pressed chicken sandwiches, Waldorf salad, green and white ice cream, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. White, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Martha Prier, Mrs. Loren Yost and Mrs. P. L. Sikes. The flowers used in the decorations were sent to the sick in the town.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Chamer, Arthur Miller, Carr Brock, Loren Yost, Clyde Bennett, Mr. William Adams and Misses Laura Brant, Inez Dix, Nellie Prather, Marie Stewart, Mesdames Mary Brook, Alice Evans, Ella Yengle, Lena Barely, Emma Sikes, Mrs. White, Martin Price, Miss Martha Sikes, Mr. Carl A. Brant.

Mrs. J. M. Graham's hospitable home on Washington street was the scene of a Kensington yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Chris Heer entertained the Ashbury class of Bigelow Methodist church. There were nearly sixty women present. The decorations and refreshments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Miss Harriet Scarff sang several Irish songs, accompanied by Mrs. Connell, and Mrs. Frank Price played pretty piano selections while the guests plied their needles in fancy work.

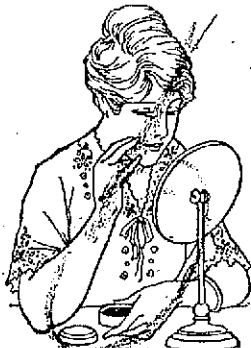

Mrs. Charles Virgin, of Rush-ton, left Thursday for a visit to relatives in Columbus.

Miss Jessie Frost, who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker while here attending school, went to Sinking Springs today to visit her relatives during vacation.

The Mizpah Class of the United Brethren Sunday school held an enjoyable meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Simpson, 1718 Twelfth street. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. Mrs. George White rendered the piano music. The hostess served excellent refreshments, after which the class adjourned to meet next at the home of Mrs. George White, of Grant street.

Mrs. Joseph Micklethwait and Miss Louise Micklethwait leave tomorrow for a visit with relatives and friends in Trenton, N. J., and New York.

The Misses Flora and Mayme Howell delightfully entertained thirty of their friends at their lovely home, corner Sixth and Lincoln streets, with a Shamrock party on Thursday evening. Green and white were the prevailing colors, and the house was beautifully decorated with flowers, palms, ferns and shamrock leaves. The favors were green St. Patrick's hats, and were pinned by Miss Lucile Goodman. The young ladies were attired in dainty evening dresses, and the party was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Instrumental music was furnished by Misses Marjorie Gerlach, Annie Book and Maass, Homer Oakes, Cornell Crookbaum and Louis Alderman. "The Trimming of the Evening" proved the climax of the evening. Each young man was given a package that was brought by the young ladies, and contained a hat and trimmings, to be trimmed by the young men, and the one that trimmed the best hat received a prize. Much merriment prevailed during the millinery efforts of the young men, and when finished the young ladies donned the Easter bunnies, and the Easter parade followed. The judges decided that Mr. Homer Oakes had trimmed the best looking hat, and Mr. Oakes received the prize, a green St. Patrick's hat and pipe.

Those present were Misses Flora Wilson, Elmore Egbert, Lucile Goodman, Bess Goodman, Bess True, Helen Warner, Mayme Musser, Julia Nickel, Marjorie Gerlach, Katherine Gerlach, Pauline Welch, Nannie Foley and Anna Book; Messrs. Homer Oakes, Cornell Crookbaum, Louis Alderman, Roy Rhinefrank, Dallas Lemon, Everett Ault and Lloyd Craden; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. The afternoon was spent in fancy work, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Louise Micklethwait and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Micklethwait.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention In February and March or Face May Stay Covered. Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March months have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use olive-double strength. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by Fisher and Stretch or any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of olive-double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles peck vanishing entirely.

St. Patrick's Day was in evidence at the home of the Misses Pray, on Ninth street, last evening, when they gave a kitchen shower honoring Miss Elizabeth Narrie, dance of Mr. Everett Wyckoff. The evening was spent in various diversions including the hemming of dust-cloths for the bride-to-be, and each guest donated a favorite recipe to be placed in a cook book for the bride. Late in the evening, in answer to the door-bell, Miss Norris was handed a prettily adorned basket containing useful utensils for the kitchen. Among the guests were the following: Misses Katherine and Vestu Stockman, Lucy and Verena Graham, Beatrice and Winifred Stewart, Rebecca and Mae Zimnick, Nellie Weibollen, Play Staten, Edith and Helen Royce, Grace Eyr, Myrtle Spencer, Sara Miller, Mrs. John Lowry, Mrs. Charles E. David and Mrs. Charles Herr. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The cakes were white and bed with green shamrock and the ice cream was in the appropriate green and white colors.

Do You Face the Day's Work With Vim and Energy?

Much depends on the start. For one can't be keen and alert on a heavy, indigestible breakfast.

Grape-Nuts

is not only easy of digestion (digests in about one hour), but it aids in the assimilation of other foods. Made of whole wheat and malted barley, the mashing of the barley awakens the digestive ferment, distaste, one of the essentials in the assimilation of all food.

Grape-Nuts comes ready to eat from the package with cream or milk; delicious, economical, and a powerful energizer for folks who "do things."

C. & O. DETECTIVE, GEORGE LENZ, IS SHOT BY A NEGRO

MURDER PLOT OF HOBOES SEEMS TO BE REAL MENACE

In a three cornered running pistol fight staged in the C. & O. yards at Handley, W. Va., at 10:50 Thursday night, George Lenz, special agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and who is well known all along the line, was shot in the left leg, left arm and left index finger by a negro named Wright, who escaped. William Parsons, who was with Wright and is also colored, was shot three times and probably fatally injured. Lenz was here investigating the Parsons mystery, and is known by all the local city and county officers.

Wright, but after falling he crawled under some bushes and got away. Lenz was removed to the Shafter Arms hospital at Handley, W. Va., where he is said to be resting easily.

A posse was organized at Handley and a search started for the gunman. The place where the shooting occurred is a lonely spot in the big Handley yards. The negro, even if badly injured, would have had little trouble in concealing himself.

The Handley yards have long been a rendezvous for tramps, thugs, and ne'er-do-wells of all descriptions, much railroad property and freight having been stolen there in the last few months.

It will be recalled that General (China Agent) L. L. Scherer was shot by a hobo while near Covington, Va., early in December. For several days Scherer was at the point of death. He is now slowly recovering from injury. The ball lodged in his abdomen. The gun user was later located, found guilty and given a long prison sentence.

On December 6 Detective James A. Baucus was shot and killed while near the Kendall avenue crossing in the East End. At that time a story was printed that a concerted attempt was being made to wipe out railway detectives and from the fact that one was mortally wounded and three seriously wounded by hobo's would tend to strengthen this theory.

A short time after Baucus was killed a prominent C. & O. detective was killed in Cincinnati, his dead body being found under a viaduct.

Lenz detected Wright and Parsons in the Handley yards and it is supposed that when he approached them a pistol fight ensued. A number of shots were exchanged as Lenz was shot three times and Parsons was shot three times.

Wright, who shot Lenz, is five feet and eight inches tall, has brown skin and curly hair. He is said to weigh about 170 pounds and wears a new suit of headlight overalls and a black cap. He was headed west when last seen.

Detectives and C. & O. agents on the various divisions have been furnished with a description of Wright and every effort will be made to apprehend him.

Lenz is a resident of Huntington and is well known there.

Relative to the shooting of Lenz the Huntington Herald-Dispatch Friday morning said:

"The authorities believe that a gang of thugs has plotted to kill many of the detectives. A man known as 'The Midnight Kid' was convicted for shooting Scherer. The Parsons killing remains a mystery."

"Detective Lenz has received many threatening letters declaring that his turn would come next."

but has paid no attention to the threats upon his life. He is considered one of the most fearless detectives on the line. Lenz was through the Paint and Cabin Creek industrial disturbances.

Lenz was the detective whose shooting by a negro was responsible for the terrible Reservoir Hill battle several years ago, in which three were killed and two seriously wounded.

Lenz captured a negro in the Sixteenth street yards of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway. The negro shot him and escaped, running up the hill back of the railway yards. A posse was organized and swarmed up the hill surrounding the desperate fellow. In the battle that followed the negro, whose name was never learned, Charles Hale and a young man named Bias, members of the posse, were killed, and Patrolman Willis Lowe shot in the neck.

Both Lenz and Lowe were in serious condition for weeks, but finally recovered.

FOREIGN IMMIGRATION IS GIVEN A SCORING

The feature of the weekly meeting of the Dr. O. P. A. M. Thursday evening was the debate between two teams of four members each on the subject. "Resolved, that foreign immigration is as great a menace to the country as the liquor traffic." The affirmative side was represented by John Beck, Brooks, Groniger, Irvin Bowser and Arthur Blake, and the negative by J. B. Bowser, K. N. DeLong, Robert Hoffbrook and Frank Schmidt.

The debate was hard fought, and considerable friendly rivalry was manifested among the speakers. The decision was awarded in favor of the affirmative side by the judges, Owen Hopkins, Alva Cowan, T. R. Hamilton and Chas. Fligor. The negative speakers demanded revenge, and another debate on the subject by the same speakers is scheduled for next Thursday evening. One week from next Monday evening a team from the local Council, composed of V. B. Groniger, John Beck, Arthur Blake and Irvin Bowser will go to New Boston to debate a team from the New Boston Council on the subject "Resolved, that U. S. Grant was a greater general than Robert E. Lee." The New Boston speakers are L. Chinn, Vernon Smith and William Fleming. It is also hoped to arrange debates with councils of other cities in the state.

The social committee, composed of L. W. Quickel, Leslie Jacobs and Alva Cowan, announced that a social will be held at the hall on the evening of April 15th. Invitation was also extended the members to attend a social to be given by the New Boston council next Saturday evening.

Two candidates, Orpha Barrett and William Sparks, were initiated at the meeting.

SAUSAGE JOE MAKES CLAIMS

Chief Carter, of Columbus, in a letter to the local police officials says that Joe Abrams, alias Sausage Joe, now in jail at Chillicothe, is evidently trying to vent a little spleen against a man in Columbus whom he claims aided a man named Kelley rob the Alex. Glockner hardware store. Chief Carter says the man Abrams is trying to implicate stands well with the citizens there and that he simply discovered Abrams attempting to steal an overcoat in a saloon there. Abrams, says the chief, has been under arrest before in Columbus for stealing shoes and is known by the department as a petit larceny thief.

MOST OLD PEOPLE ARE CONSTIPATED

The wear of years impairs the action of the bowels. With advancing age people are disposed to restricted activity and exercise, which is responsible for the constipated condition of most old folks. The digestive organs are more sensitive to the demands made upon them and need more quick action.

A mild, effective remedy for constipation, and one that is especially suited to the needs of elderly people, women, and children, is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 152 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

Girl Has Bad Fall

A 16-year-old named Kiefer, from Long Run, was laid out and severely shaken up in stepping from the front end of a moving street car opposite the Masonic Temple Friday morning. The child's father had alighted at the post-office, she falling to get off. When she discovered her condition she became excited, called men off and sustained a head fall. Police Officer Joe Bonzo picked her up, later turning her over to the father.

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By rubbing most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky, and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

LOCAL PEOPLE MAY GET $5,000 FOUND IN TRUNK

Woman Who Sold Papers Had Money Hidden In Home

Scioto county residents stand a chance of securing the bulk of $5,000 which Mrs. Uriah Raynor had hidden in a trunk and which was found after her death in Cincinnati. The Charles Raynor mentioned in the Enquirer story of the affair is from Sciotoville, and is said to be only a half brother of Mrs. Raynor's husband. Mrs. Maria Maddock of this city is a sister-in-law.

The Enquirer says: "A sackful of money—literally full—was found yesterday in the trunk of Mrs. Uriah Raynor, the aged 'paper woman,' who was found dead in her squalid home on the second floor of the building at 205 East Thirteenth street on Wednesday.

"While the body of the old woman rested upon a slab at the 'family Morgue' awaiting to be buried by the county as a soldier's widow, more than $5,000 in cash was lying in the trunk in her room, a rickety door with a weak lock and an open transom above being the only protection for the wealth had anyone suspected that the aged woman was not as poverty stricken as she appeared and pretended to be.

"Thousands of Cincinnati knew Mrs. Raynor, the old woman who stood at the corners of Fifth and Walnut or Fifth and Vine streets selling newspapers. Tall and angular, dressed in an old black dress, with an old black hat and cape which covered her head and shoulders like a monk's cowl, she was a figure which excelled the pity of thousands each day. Rain or sunshine she was on the streets selling her papers and looking the picture of misery, poverty and ill-health. Hundreds of her bought penny papers from her hand for a nickel or dime and then passed hurriedly on, not waiting for their change, but considering that their contribution to a woman they believed to be in dire distress was worth it.

"Home Was Unkept
"And yet that woman had a small fortune hoarded away in her uncomfortable home. Neighbors believed her to be the essence of poverty, and many of those who had heard trouble finding enough for themselves and their own to eat took pity upon her and shared their little with her.

"No one suspected that she had anything but her, and when her husband died in September, 1913, and she kept on selling papers, her apparent loneliness seemed only to accentuate the desire of the neighbors to do more for her. She was most uncommunicative, however, and it was her actions and not her words which caused people to believe that she was poverty stricken. Many times those who knew her wanted her to give up her room and live with them, or at least spend the night with them, but she invariably refused.

"Yesterday all of this was explained. When the neighbors discovered that she was dead Wednesday the police and coroner took charge of the body and locked up the place. In her clothing a purse with $24.16 was found and this was believed to be all that she had. As her husband had been a soldier, and she was a small pensioner as a soldier's widow, arrangements were being made to have the county bury her from the fund for the burial of soldiers and their widows.

Bills of All Denominations
"Late yesterday, however, Charles H. Raynor, brother of Thomas Raynor, the dead woman's husband, arrived in this city from his home in Portsmouth, Ohio, where he had been notified of her death. He called upon Probate Judge Luaders and said that he believed that Mrs. Raynor must have had considerable money, because when his brother died, he came here and at that time she showed him that she had about $2,000 cash.

"Judge Luaders, to whom the effects of the aged woman had been turned over, immediately arranged to visit the house with Raynor, Deputy Harry Taylor, Bailiff Westerkamp and an Enquirer reporter. Upon reaching the place the poverty stricken look of the rooms seemed to belie any thought that the woman could have had any amount of money. A fairly good trunk stood in one corner of the room, however, and after the balance of the place had been searched, this was opened, and in the bottom was found a large sack, which was literally stuffed full of money.

"The cash was rolled into tight wads and wrapped with old papers, or thrust into empty tobacco sacks. Some of it had been rolled so tight and so long that it was almost matted together. There were hundreds of one-dollar bills; twos in abundance, and the balance was in fives, tens, twenties and fifties, with four $100 bills and some $5 gold pieces. The entire bundle of cash was thrust into a satchel, the two squalid rooms were locked up again and the party started for the courthouse.

Total Reaches $5,108.02
"At the Probate Court Chief Deputy George Carroll assisted the others to count the hoard, and it was spread out on a table in the courtroom, where scores of curious came to have a look at it. Over an hour was required to smooth and count the money, and then it was found that there was exactly $5,108.02, of which $5,039 was in currency, $65 in gold and $4.02 in silver and pennies. An administrator will be appointed by Probate Judge Luaders this morning, who will take charge of the money and seek out the heirs.

"Mrs. Raynor was the widow of Charles H. Raynor, for years on the police force here. Raynor had been in the Union Army and drew a pension. He had also done steamboating on the Ohio and Mississippi, but later went on the police force. He suffered a stroke of paralysis in late years, and after that he sold papers. He was 74 years old when he died in September, 1913.

"Raynor was married 35 years ago, and after her husband became so feeble that he could do but little work Mrs. Raynor took to selling papers also, and she became one of the most familiar figures in the city. She was 62 years old, and had no relatives so far as is known. Charles H. Raynor, brother of Thomas Raynor, said that he had always been told by his sister-in-law that she had no living relatives. In that event he and his brother and sister will probably come in for the entire estate, as it is claimed that the cash represents the savings of Raynor, and that his wife added but little thereto. Charles Raynor was effective in his thanks to Probate Judge Luaders for his quick action in the matter."

Spring Announcement

It is with considerable pride that I announce to the men and young men of Portsmouth that my line of Men's Wearing Apparel for Spring, 1915, is ready for your most critical inspection. Nothing will please me more than to have you visit my store and make a most careful examination of my Spring lines.

Without exaggerating the least, I can honestly say that my selections for Spring will equal those shown by the largest stores in the country and surpassed by none. This year particular attention has been paid to smart, snappy and select styles. Quality, of course, is paramount, and this feature has not been overlooked. You will find in my lines all the latest creations—just what you need most to make you well dressed.

No matter how many comparisons you make you will find the end result of the superiority of the HAAS label—a little thing in itself, but a big thing to find.

WILL INSTALL MODERN MILL

Pittsburgh, Penn., March 19.—In spite of a drought of steel makers have faith in the future.

Among these is the Youngstown Iron and Steel Company, which has contracted with the William Tod Company, of Youngstown, for a 30-inch three-high combination blooming and sheet bar mill, equipped with two-high planishing stands; one 36-inch three-high slabbing mill and universal plate mill with all accessories. This will increase the output of the Youngstown plant approximately 700 tons a day. The new plant will include a hot metal route from the Mary Furnace of the Ohio Iron and Steel Company direct to the open-hearth furnaces. Machinery will be delivered during July of this year.

FINE SHOWING OF TOP COATS

That spring is just about here is conclusively proven by a glance at the north display window at the Hnas store, Fifth and Chillicothe streets. The window decorator, Ernest Kelley, has arranged a very artistic display of spring top coats, the very latest word in fashion. The coats are beautiful in all the work implies and have attracted all sorts of attention. They are shown to splendid advantage, thanks to the artistic temperament of "Pat," who takes off his hat to no one when it comes to tastefully displaying new merchandise. Mr. Haas stated that top coats will be all the rage this spring, which means that Portsmouth's best dressers will be right in the game, when it comes to wearing the new togs.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The big Boy Scout entertainment and Gym meet comes off tonight at the First Presbyterian church. A large crowd is expected as many tickets have been sold, and the boys are expecting to sell as many more at the door. Rev. John W. Dunning will furnish four splendid reels of moving pictures, two comedies and two educational. Following the moving pictures will be a number of monologues by Mr. Harry Porter, well known comedian.

The audience will be transferred to the gymnasium where a basket ball game will be pulled off between the Athletics and Tigers. This game alone is well worth the price of admission as both teams are evenly matched. Between halves a number of interesting wrestling matches will be pulled off. The price of admission tonight is 15 cents. The proceeds will go towards purchasing uniforms for the Athletic and Tiger teams of the Boy Scout league. Performance will begin promptly at 7 o'clock.

Are Priced Close To Cost!

The necessity of moving into larger quarters in order to accommodate the steady growth of our business (our new location, 1100 Bldg., corner Gallia and Gay streets, after March 25th), is the only cause of these sacrifices of high class, newest models for Spring, 1915 in Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Millinery, etc. We are very anxious to sell all stocks possible and avoid the great trouble and inconvenience of having same moved. If prices only count, and we are sure it does these hard times the stocks should constantly reduce and we anticipate the biggest record of sales within the next few days.

The Opportunity

of buying Spring styles before the season hardly commenced at close to cost prices. We know you did not dream of it, neither did we think of it, we used the greatest care in selecting our stocks within the past few months, searched all markets to secure biggest values, without knowing of what being ahead of us. We have never given the slightest thought to the possibility of moving. And the chance sprang up rather surprisingly to us with the 1100 building (which was just vacated by a grocery) and the management did not lose time to grasp it. ## Trinity Revival

Revival services at Trinity church will begin Sunday evening and the pastor, Rev. Strecker, has selected for his first sermon: "Church Members." It is evident from this that the pastor believes that a revival should begin among the members of a church, and the first thing to do is to get the membership "right with God." The revival meetings will be held each evening, except Sunday, at 7:15. A large chorus choir has been organized under the personal direction of Mr. John N. Davis, who will have charge of the singing throughout the meetings.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 19.—A conservative estimate today indicated that there is at the various landings sufficient loaded coal craft to make up nine regulation tows in the event of a rise. The River Coal Company has now in this port nine of the larger class of Ohio river towboats—the Chas. Brown, James Moran, Samuel Brown, Samuel Clark, Cruiser Valiant, W. R. Field, Duquesne and the Alice Brown. Three additional boats are within 12 hours' run—the Thomas Dodsworth, Boaz and the P. M. Wallace all of which can be employed in moving the coal when the rise takes place. This morning Paul Irving, 27 years old, of Hartford, Conn., pulled away from the foot of Terminal Way, South Side, in an old rowboat, bound for the Gulf of Mexico. Irving expects to be in New Orleans by the middle of the summer. He carried only one pair of oars. He took two anchors and two heavy steel rings as anchor weights.

Proceedings Dismissed

Judge Thomas Thursday afternoon dismissed the proceedings in contempt against Joseph P. Weber, brought on by his former wife, now Ollie P. Hughes, who complained that he had not been paying her alimony of $2.50, as ordered by the court several months ago. Weber showed the court that he had not had steady employment for several weeks and was not able to make the payments, but that he would do so as soon as he could obtain work. Blair and Knoble were the wife's attorneys.

SORE THROAT OFTEN A SIGN OF DANGER

A common sore throat neglected may lead to pneumonia, quinsy or chronic throat troubles. And a twenty-five-cent investment in Hoff's German Lintiment may save the price of a tombstone. Everyone should know that Hoff's German Lintiment makes a fine gargle and can be used freely for sore throat with quick results. It can be taken internally for coughs, colds, croup, etc. Thousands of mothers appreciate Hoff's German Lintiment for relieving children's ailments. They know that there is nothing like Hoff's German Lintiment for stopping pain. Made from white emulsion of camphor cream with other pure, harmless, effective ingredients. Everyone knows that camphorated oil rubbed on the chest is good for colds on the lungs, etc. The only objection to it is that it leaves the pores open, making one a waiting victim for the next attack of cold. Hoff's German Lintiment keeps the pores closed—keeps colds out. All druggists sell Hoff's German Lintiment—a quarter pint for a quarter; large family size, 50c. We absolutely guarantee results and authorize your druggist to return your money if not satisfied. There is only one genuine Hoff's German Lintiment. Beware of substitutes. Don't let a sore throat linger—it sometimes leads to pneumonia, diphtheria, etc. Apply at once a little of Hoff's German Lintiment and note the quick results.

Claims Her Health Has Been Ruined

Inhuman treatment, sufficient to undermine her health, is charged by Bertha Smalley, wife of James A. Smalley, of this city, in a divorce petition filed in common pleas court by Attorney George W. Sheppard. She alleges that Smalley cursed, beat and choked her, accused her of infidelity, and now threatens to kill her. She also claims that she has been compelled to take in washings to support herself and her children. A temporary injunction, restraining the husband from interfering with his wife, was granted upon the filing of the petition by Judge Thomas.

The couple were married December 24, 1904, at South Portsmouth, Ky. Three children were born to the union, two of whom are still living. The wife seeks divorce, money and custody of the children.

BUILT HOUSE HIMSELF

Lewis Mason, colored, late janitor at the postoffice, has just completed a four room cottage on his lot at 1131 Thirteenth street. The remarkable thing about it is that Mason drew the plans himself, cut all the timber and built the house from foundation to gable, including the chimney, and it is all true and good. This makes the third house he has created all by himself and when he began on the first one he had no experience whatsoever as a carpenter or mason. He owns five houses altogether.

The Movies

Columbia Paramount Tonight Edith Tallaferro in "Young Romance," a photo-drama founded on a play by William C. De Mille and produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Film Co., is the Paramount attraction at the Columbia tonight.

This beautiful picture in five reels featuring Edith Tallaferro, is a story of metropolitan life, founded mainly on the aspirations and day-dreams of a shop girl, Nellie, of the notions counter.

Part of the action transpires in the department store where Nellie is employed, but most of the incidents take place at a fashionable Maine summer resort, where Nellie goes to escape her imaginary gentleman of no ability after spending a whole year's earnings in new up-to-date duds, with which she expects to make "a hit."

Nellie's efforts are finally rewarded when she lands a supposed count, who turns out to be one of the boys from some other department of the store in which she works, and she does not discover this fact until one day after she returns home, she runs into her count as she enters the store to begin her day's work.

This simple little story is so cunningly told in pictures that it makes a picture filled with interest and laughable situations and one that you will enjoy from beginning to end.

Next week, Paramount day.

The Temple theater has for its patrons this evening a picture entitled "College Days," made by the Kay Bee company in two parts a football romance by William H. Clifford and played by Mr. Pratt, George Fisher, Louise Glau, Mr. Mortensen and Joseph Dowling. The third picture, a majestic entitled "An Old-Fashioned Girl," is a rural romance featuring Dorothy Gish and William Hinckley as her village lover. The fourth reel is a Keystone comedy entitled "Caught in a Park."

A Big Thriller For Arcana Tonight

The Arcana theater established a new attendance record last night when the fourth episode of the "Master Key" was produced. The crowd was dense from opening until closing time, many patrons remaining through 2 shows. Manager Potts most certainly secured a tremendous hit when he booked that great feature.

Tonight should be another big one for the Arcana, for Manager Potts has booked "The House of Fear," a melodrama in 3 parts that comes as a guaranteed production. It is a live wire play, one that is chock full of action and climaxes from first to last. Come and see this great play. Remember, the admission is but five cents and you see a show that is equal to any of them, regardless of the admission.

At The Exhibit

Manager Law's personal endorsement is given the picture "Vengeance Is Mine," a two-reel feature that he is offering at the exhibit today. In addition he has a comedy entitled "Ethel Gets the Evidence." And don't forget the good musical program all evening.

Tomorrow's feature will be "In Tune," in two reels, with Winifred Greenwood and Ed Cuxen starring.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun

"The Village Postmaster," Mr. Barrett's selection for the last half of the week, gives the patrons of comedy the treat of the season. This play is written from life and the places are real and the characters are not characters of imagination but real men and women. This play was written by a friend of Mr. Barrett's and is being played as it was written and as the writer wanted it played, giving the people who see it a feeling that they are seeing a show that is not overdrawn but just true to life. The part of the postmaster is one of the best comedy parts that have ever been written along this line and the third act is a riot of comedy. Mr. Morris in this part is at his best, getting a string of laughs as long as the show.

Miss May, Mr. Laffey, Mr. Carroll and Mr. Fahr are cast in parts that make one like them better than ever.

best piece of stage setting that has ever been shown in Portsmouth. The railroad scene in the second act is wonderful. Truck signal lights, tower, and best of all the mammoth engine that appears at a distance and stops at the foot lights is well worth seeing.

Next week "East Lynne" will be the bill. This is being played by request, hundreds of Portsmouth people asking that it be played. The story is old and one that every one enjoys, so don't miss it.

"Fire Away!" Said Billy Sunday

and his friend did. He asked the famous evangelist, face to face, just those questions that every man and woman who has ever heard the man would like to ask him:

Why he uses slang.
Why he tears off his collar.
Does he think himself sensational?
Why he hits the preachers.
Why he is immune to criticism.
What are the real effects of his revivals.
Why he keeps it up when the doctors tell him he's killing himself.

And the answers constitute the best article on Billy Sunday that has ever appeared.

Take Steps Toward Forming A County C. E. Organization

Representatives of the Christian Endeavor Societies of seven local churches were in attendance at the rally meeting of the officers and workers of these societies at the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening. The object of the meeting was to form a Scioto County Christian Endeavor Union, and to this end, S. B. Vandersaal, the state secretary, was present to assist the local workers.

About forty officers of the seven societies were present at the conference held at 6:30 o'clock, during which supper was served by the ladies of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Vandersaal and W. W. Gates were the principal speakers at this conference.

At 7:45 o'clock an open meeting was held in the church, which was attended by over one hundred workers. The aims and objects of the meeting were thoroughly explained at this meeting, which was presided over by E. W. Crayton, of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church. Addresses were made by Mr. Vandersaal and Rev. John W. Dunning.

The meeting adjourned to meet next Thursday evening at the Second Presbyterian church, where an organization will be effected. Representatives of the Epworth League societies of the Methodist churches advised those present of their desire to co-operate with the organization in any work attempted.

A feature of the meeting last evening was a pleasing solo by Miss Irian Lindheimer.

Final arrangements for the lecture of Mrs. Dora Sandoe Bachman at the high school auditorium next Tuesday evening, and for the reception and tea to the distinguished speaker at the home of Mrs. Alan N. Twelve Boy Scouts will usher the crowd to its seats, request having been made on M. H. E. Kinsey, scout commissioner, for a detail of patrol. The Scouts will be in full uniform. ## IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache, a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month, and I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. HANSEN, Box 8, Allen, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out, or long out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ITCHING, BLISTERED SKIN-ERUPTION ALL HIS LIFE, NOW CURED

Nov. 19, 1914.—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with itching and blisters over my entire body. The itching and burning was terrible, and I could hardly sleep. I tried many treatments that were unsuccessful and did not give me any relief. I started using Resinol Ointment, and Resinol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I WAS RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after about two dozen applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as anybody's." (Signed) Geo. Whitcher, Jr., R. F. D. ## Blood Sufferers Want to Know

The Light is Turned on to a Subject of Darkness.

The mere fact that S. S. S. is a famous blood purifier, gives out a message to a world's story, a tale of emancipation where men get together.
They wonder, why, simply because most remedies are quackery and put before them as "cure-alls." The fact is that they pay too much attention to "quackery" and not enough to real, honest, scientific medicine. S. S. S. is a remedy of our fathers. It has a history that is written upon the skin of our forefathers. It has done the work of a great many other remedies, and it is the only one that is true to the work of a body.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. from any druggist and begin blood work. It will master any blood disease and do it in a way to emphasize its influence. And if you would like definite advice write to S. S. ## ITALY REFUSES OFFER

Rome, March 19—(via Paris)—What purports to be an outline of Austria's attitude with relation to the cession of territory to Italy is contained in a dispatch to the Tribune, dated Vienna, but telegraphed from the frontier. The statement is made that Austria, without reflecting upon Italian good faith, contends it is only natural that the dual monarchy, if she is ready to grant territorial compensation, should wish to insure Italian neutrality. For this reason, the dispatch says, Austria feels she should carry out her part of the proposed agreement only when an Italian pledge of neutrality is fulfilled, especially in view of the fact that the cession of the province of Trent would imply a weakening of Austria's military resources with regard to Italy.

Commenting upon this report, the Tribune says the condition which Austria demands is absolutely unacceptable and if maintained would make impossible any friendly agreement. No ministry would accept as a satisfaction of national aspirations a simple promise to be carried out at the end of a war, the results of which one can foresee, the newspaper argues.

High School Class Scores A Big Hit

The comedy farce, "She Stoops to Conquer," presented by the Junior class of the high school Thursday evening in the high school auditorium won hearty approval from the capacity audience. Eighteen students took part and each one played his or her part in a splendid manner. Vancil Alexander, as Mr. Hardcastle an old-fashioned English country gentleman, Mildred McAfee, as Kate Hardcastle and Ruth Crawford as Mrs. Hardcastle, could not have been better. Will Quinn who was entrusted with the comedy part that of Tony Lumpkin pampered son of Mrs. Hardcastle was never still and he played trick after trick on his mother and friends. Quinn scored one of the hits of the evening. Richard Prince as Mr. Hastings, Pearl Crawford as Young Charles Marlowe, the bashful lover, Loria Cunningham as Sir Charles Marlowe, Elizabeth Huddleston as Miss Neville were also bright lights of the play. Jessie Gibbs, Homer Wilson, Cranston Laeke, Walter Lewis, Ralph Hooper, John Higgins, Massey Foley, Elmer Warner and Stanley Hopkins played in the silent parts as maid and servants. Miss Ethel Morris of the high school faculty deserves credit for producing such a pleasing play. Special scenery and special costumes added greatly to the enjoyment.

Are you ready with your new suit? Have you looked at the snappy spring fabrics? They are really snappy this year. The stripes are catching—and plaids go well, too.

This is particularly true of Continental stripes and plaids. There is that newness and brightness and exclusiveness recognized the instant we show them. They are different from those you see any place else because for 44 years the Continental Tailors have been learning how to get ahead of the other fellows.

We selected the Continental Tailors to do our tailoring because we have concluded they are ahead of EVERYTHING. Exclusive fabrics—exclusive styles. Don't be months behind in style—wait—Easter night.

FRENCH WARSHIP IS SUNK IN THE DARDANELLES

Constantinople, March 19---(by wireless to Berlin and London)---An official statement issued from Turkish headquarters says "Our fleet early today bombarded the ship yards at maneuvering place of torpedo boats west of Theodosia, (on the Black Sea in Crimea, a part of Russia) and set the buildings on fire. An allied fleet heavily shelled the forts of the Dardanelles which replied effectively, sinking the French battleship Bouvet."

The French battleship Bouvet, which is reported in a Turkish official statement to have been sunk in the Dardanelles, was a vessel of 12,000 tons displacement laid down in 1893 with a complement of 621 men. Her armament consisted of two 12-inch guns, two 10.8-inch eight 5.5-inch, eight 3.9-inch, ten 3 pounders and ten 1 pounders, besides two torpedo tubes.

BRITISH WARSHIPS DAMAGED

Paris, March 19.—An artillery duel in the Dardanelles between Turkish shore batteries and warships protecting allied mine sweepers lasted from midnight until 2 a. m. yesterday says an Athens dispatch to the Havas Agency based upon information from Tenedos. The warships are reported to have been struck by several shells but the damage done was slight.

DECLARE MORATORIUM ON W. VIRGINIA'S DEBTS

BRITISH SUFFER APPALLING LOSSES

London, March 19.—Evidence is accumulating of the heavy British losses in the recent fighting in Flanders. Lord Claud Hamilton, addressing a meeting in London last night, said "that the papers were not giving full lists of the losses. His own regiment, the Grenadier guards, he declared, lost their colonel and 14 officers killed and wounded and 1,100 men the finest in the army. Only 300 survived."

The Camerons also seemed to have been almost totally wiped out; their list of killed and wounded were appalling. A dispatch to the Times gives a list of 25 British officers killed, whose names had not appeared in the official list making a total of 348 officers killed or wounded in the recent fighting.

MARIETTA MERCHANT IS BURNED TO DEATH

Marietta, March 19.—H. H. Palmer, a merchant, was burned to death early today when his store, in which he lived was completely destroyed by fire. Frederick Hoskins and John Walfer were struck by a falling chimney while trying to rescue Palmer, and both were badly injured.

ROLLS 11 STRAIGHT STRIKES

Peoria, Ill., March 19.—Attack on the pins in the American Bowling Congress tournament will be made by sixty-two doubles, 126 individuals and 28 five men teams today and tonight. The first batch of competitors which included some from Indianapolis, found the leadership in the various events unchanged from yesterday. J. L. Spaulding of Taylorville, Ill., with 1,848, leads in the all-events but found a dangerous rival in V. Davis who, rolling with the Chicago Diana Quintette, last night made 11 straight strikes for a score of 297.

James Quinn, a West End restaurateur, who has been laid up at his home on Front street with dropsy for some time past, is now slowly improving.

Charleston, W. Va., Mar. 19.—Payments of general charges on the West Virginia State treasury were suspended this morning by State Auditor John S. Durst and State Treasurer B. L. Long. This action was taken by the two fiscal officers of the State following a conference of the Board of Public Works in which the critical condition of the general revenue fund of the State was discussed.

How long this condition of the State fund will obtain is a matter of conjecture, but State Auditor Durst declared it would probably be the middle of June before the State could resume payments of these general charges on the treasury.

The moratorium was sprung on the State suddenly, yesterday morning and, requisitions drawn on the State fund were accepted at the office of the Auditor and filed away for future action when the revenues are replenished.

THAW CASE POSTPONED

New York, March 19.—Harry K. Thaw's legal battle to prove that he is sane and entitled to his freedom has been postponed for one week.

AUSTRIA'S REPRESENTATIONS INACCEPTABLE TO ITALY; CAN NOW REALIZE ASPIRATIONS

Rome, March 19.—(via Paris)—What purports to be an outline of Austria's attitude with relation to the cession of territory to Italy is contained in a dispatch to the Tribune, dated Vienna, but telegraphed from the frontier. The statement is made that Austria, without reflecting upon Italian good faith, contends it is only natural that the dual monarchy, if she is ready to grant territorial compensation, should wish to insure Italian neutrality. For this reason, the dispatch says, Austria feels she should carry out her part of the proposed agreement only when an Italian pledge of neutrality is fulfilled, especially in view of the fact that the cession of the province of Trent would imply a weakening of Austrian military resources with regard to Italy.

Commenting upon this report, the Tribune says the condition which Austria demands is absolutely unacceptable and if maintained would make impossible any friendly agreement. No ministry would accept a satisfaction of national aspirations a simple promise to be carried out at the end of a war, the results of which one can foresee, the newspaper argues.

Austria's War Action Contrary To Italy's Desires

"The Austro-German point of view," the Tribune says, "is wrong because they think Italy is asking compensation for neutrality. The problem is totally different. Austria provoked the war through aggression against Serbia, partly against repeated Italian warnings, and partly without Italy's knowledge. This action was entirely contrary to mutual Italo-Austrian pledges and conflicted with the fundamental interests of Italy. Thus the European equilibrium was upset and radical changes in the map of Europe are inevitable."

"Italy sacrificed her national aspirations by adhering to the triple alliance for the sake of preserving that European equilibrium. Since Austria shattered it, Italy can no longer postpone the realization of those aspirations."

Will Clothe Eitel's Departure In Secrecy

Washington, Mar. 19.—No information will be made public by the United States government which might in any way aid British and French cruisers waiting off the Virginia capes to catch the German converted cruiser Prinz Ritel Friedrich in event her commander should decide to make a dash for the high seas from Newport News.

State and Navy Department officials made it clear today that they intended to overlook no point in preserving the strictest neutrality in the treatment of the refugee ship.

LATEST WAR MEASURE HAS U. S. GUESSING; ACTION NOT DEFINED

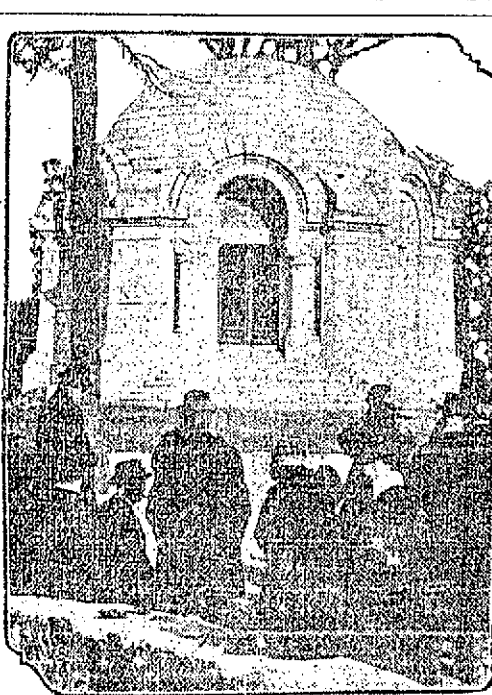

Washington, March 19.—Problems confronting American shipping, raised by successive war measures taken by the fighting European nations, were before President Wilson and his cabinet today. The conference was expected to arrive at a definite line of action in shaping a protest against the latest war measures—the British order in council announcing reprisals against German commerce.

This latest action of the allies officials here consider without precedent in international law. It has been stated officially at the state department that the United States does not know whether the allies intend their action as a legal blockade or whether the rules of contraband and non-contraband are to be the basis for definitions. It is understood the United States government holds that if the action of the allies is a blockade it must be made effective before commerce to and from Germany can be stopped. It will maintain further that American commerce with European neutrals cannot be interfered with.

If the allies do not claim the order in council is a blockade the United States is not expected to acknowledge the right of the allies to detain non-contraband even when consigned to German ports.

THE LATEST IN SPORTDOM

Head Pin Tourney Is On In Full Blast

That the head pin tournament being held at the Play House under the auspices of the Portsmouth Five will be one grand success, is shown by the fact that the event was liberally patronized Thursday. When the bowlers quit last night three men were tied for first place honors, Messrs. Chris Malavazos, H. Barnes and George Wilhelm, each of whom had turned in 39. It just seemed impossible for the players to hang up four strikes in a row, which is necessary in order to ring up a perfect score. The contest will close on Saturday at midnight, and the winner will be presented with a $16.00 mottled mineralite ball, donated by the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co. of Cincinnati. The second prize will be a pair of solid gold cuff buttons, donated by Walter Wilhelm, Chillicothe street jeweler. The third prize will be a French briar pipe, presented by William Gablemann, manager of the Play House.

There is no question, it is thought, but that some one will eventually hang up a perfect score. The three players named above came through with three straight strikes, only to fall down on their fourth attempt. So long as a perfect score cannot be made, 39 is just as good.

The members of the Masonic League will no doubt take several shots at the head pin tonight. Four teams in the league are to roll, and by the time they have completed their schedule they will no doubt be warmed up to their task and will shoot in the tourney.

The contest will continue throughout Friday and Saturday, coming to a close Saturday night when the midnight bell laps. The roll off will occur some time next week.

In the accuracy contest, Chris Malavazos rolled off one of his games and shot a perfect score. The winner of this event is to receive a suit of tailor made clothes, donated by Phil Wolff, Chillicothe street tailor.

Wants Places For "Rookie" Players

Scout Billy Doyle stated last night that he expected eighteen of his rookies to roll into Portsmouth on April 1. They will immediately report to Millbrook park where they will enroll themselves as members of Prof. Doyle's Baseball School. The question that is now confronting Doyle is where to find lodging for the players. He will appreciate it if those persons who desire to furnish board and room to the various players will kindly call phone 910, and leave their names and addresses. Liberal pay will be made for the players, all of whom are said to be perfect gentlemen. Then, you know, players in training are not expected to eat head-on—they will be so full of hope and expectation that they won't have any room left for meat, bread and potatoes.

NEW PRESIDENT MEANS BUSINESS

Relative to the recent meeting of the Ohio State league officials and owners at Lexington the Herald of that city says:

"President Carr is expected to begin at once his work of organizing the clubs of the league for the opening of the season. In accordance with the rules adopted recently at a meeting of the league at Ironton, the new president is expected to receive a salary of about $1,000 to $1,500 a year. The way, it is said, John 'Doc' Boyan, the fastest man in baseball, is understood to have made application for the position as manager-coach-player of the Chillicothe Braves, which probably will be granted to him. He most probably will have Edward Pickett, who was here associated with him in the club."

Shot Putting Helps His Pitching Arm

That putting the shot is a good means of strengthening a pitcher's arm is the opinion and the example of Bob Collins, a promising candidate for the Fordham twirling staff. Collins, who has wonderful speed, is a shot putter of no mean ability, capturing the event in the New York A. C. games and finishing second in the Harvard naval militia meet. Throwing the weight has built up his muscles greatly during the last year, and his speed with the horsehide has likewise increased.

Alma Richards, the intercollegiate indoor high-jump champion, is in a class by himself for all time. What other man of his weight ever cleared 6 ft. 4 in. or nearly approached it? The Cornell man may not weigh 220 pounds, as has been stated, but he is very big and heavy for a great high jumper.

DIAMOND STARS GO DANCE CRAZY

Baseball players now in the land of sunshine and roses, where they are supposed to be in spring training, have gone dance crazy.

Worst of all, many of their bosses are encouraging them in this feverish desire to trip the light fantastic. The managers declaring that the players by dancing become more lightfooted, and so consequently are able to steal more bases.

John McGraw and Miller Huggins have their Giants and Cardinals doing the fox trot and tango at their hotels most every chance they get.

Connie Mack's Athletics also are spending much of their spare time on the dancier floor.

GOES BACK TO WACO

Eddie Donalds, former Portsmouth pitcher, who played with the Waco team of the Texas League and who was purchased by the Brooklyn team of the National League, has been returned to the Waco team where he expects to duplicate his wonderful record of last year.

Word has been received from Donalds to the effect that he was never in better condition than that all talk concerning a sore arm is purely imaginary. He would have stayed with the Brooklyn team, but was sent to Waco as a personal favor to Manager Hardy, who is a warm friend of Manager Robinson, of the Brooklyn club. There were also pitchers that had to leave the Brooklyn camp, but Donalds was not one of them. However, Manager Hardy loaned Manager Robinson to turn Donalds over to him. He will be recalled at any time according to the agreement. His contract with Brooklyn will be assumed by Waco, hence Eddie will receive the same money he would under the Brooklyn agreement. He writes that he is feeling fine and hopes to go even better than last year, when he fairly burned up the Texas league. He will be joined by Mrs. Donalds within the next two weeks. Needless to add that Mr. and Mrs. Donalds are delighted with the new arrangement, for they both have a host of friends at Waco where they are quite popular. Mrs. Donalds will be accompanied south by Mrs. Edward Conwell, whose husband is playing second base with the Waco team.

Spectacled Pitcher Is Regular Iron Man

Harry Meadows, the Cardinal pitcher who wears glasses while pitching and batting, had a record as an iron man in the North Carolina league last season. Several scouts heard of his great work, but when they saw his spectacles they passed him up. He had Scout General of the Cardinals, who scouted Meadows win a double header 10 to 0 and 5 to 0, come back on Monday with a 2 to 0 one-hit game and on Wednesday with a 3 to 0 two-hit contest. Meadows also claims he wore his glasses while playing basketball in his high school eleven, declaring he was never hurt. Meadows won fifteen and lost 12 games.

Is After Baker

New York, March 19.—It has leaked out that Colonel Hodges, of the St. Louis Browns, has made a direct offer to Connie Mack for the release of Homer Run Baker, and that Mack has promised to make the deal if Baker refuses to play again with the Athletics. The Yankees were thought to have first call on Baker and W. N. Fleishmann, Colonel Rupert's representative, is now in Chicago to lay the matter before him.

The owners of the Yankees, Colonel Jacob Rupert, Jr. and Captain T. L. Houston, stand ready to pay $25,000 in cash for Baker and will sign him at a salary of $10,000 a year.

CAUGHT ON FENCE?

Kennard Hicks was arrested by Officer Charles Flowers, Thursday night for alleged prowling about the Ray Stirling home at 921 Eighth street. He is said to have been half-way over a side fence when discovered. Mr. Stirling's bicycle was in the rear yard. Police Sergeant James Marshall had observed the same youth crouched up in the dark near Eighth and Findlay streets shortly before.

Grateful Philadelphians have given "Billy" Sunday $80,000 for his work as an evangelist in that city. In addition to the cash, which was collected by the ushers in tin dishpans at the tubercle, friends of the evangelist and those who had fallen under the spell of his eloquence contributed gifts sufficient to fill a box car. They ranged from a sofa pillow to a chest of silver, and many were representative of the callings of delegations which sent them. No man, regardless of calling, has ever been the recipient of so many gifts of value.

THE INSTITUTE AGAIN.

Editor Times:—After reading some of the letters and editorials about our county institute, I cannot refrain from adding just a few words.

The person who wrote one of the letters last week tried to shift the blame for the discontinuance of the institute onto our most worthy county superintendent and county officers, and that the discontinuance of the institute is a detriment to the progress of education. I think it very unwise, as well as absurd, for any city teacher to dictate to our county superintendent and county board of education the "way affairs should be carried on."

For many years our county superintendent has made a careful study of the methods of education that are beneficial to both teacher and pupil.

It isn't the methods in teaching that the city teacher wants so badly; it's the ten dollars. I know that if the entire body of teachers were asked today to apply at least one method that was discussed at the institute last fall, fully three-fourths could not. Is this procedure worth nearly three thousand dollars to the taxpayers?

Yes, the social life during the institute is great. But who pays for it? "The taxpayers." It was a "standing joke" among the teachers during institute of how they would slip in and register for their attendance and then slip out. Is it worth thousands of dollars?

Accounts of advances by the British forces in Belgium indicate that an army of sufficient numbers has been taken across the channel to make real headway against the Germans. ### A POOR BUSINESS.

Der Paderland is a new weekly publication, appearing shortly after the outbreak of the European war, with two purposes in view, to set the German side of that conflict before the American public and "to make it hot" for those who do not hold the same views on the conflict as itself. In its last issue Der Paderland exults that heavy patronage is being withdrawn from those New York papers that are in sympathy with the Allies and mentions one that is losing advertising at the rate of $400,000 a year because of a boycott placed upon it by German merchants. It asserts that this is but a beginning and the boycott will be extended until it covers the country and makes "every enemy of Germany" feel its weight. The statements of Der Paderland are interesting and will be received with astonishment by the American public. That public had conceived the idea that the New York press was dominated, controlled and directed by "the big interests" and their utterances were dictated by the capital that counts on sufficient and ample returns. To learn that this press has honest opinions and the courage to stick to them, even at enormous financial loss, places them on a plane on which they were not before firmly established in public estimation. As for the views themselves, one may or may not agree with them, but in fairness he will have to admit any other paper has just as much right to disagree with Der Paderland as Der Paderland has to differ from it and a boycott for opinion & sake is a mighty bad business all around.

RIPPING HER UP.

Right merrily the present assembly is ripping all to pieces the work that its immediate predecessor set itself to with such devotion and patriotism. And the strangest part of all is that the world wags away pretty much as if nothing out of the ordinary were going on. It is the proof of what was said in these columns awhile back. The best statesmanship consists in giving the people what they want, not what they think they want. For four or five years there was so much baying and howling about progressive legislation that the people became convinced they wanted it. Nobody arose to define progressive legislation. The crank, the fanatic, the reformer, the visionary, the social servicer, the up-lifter proclaimed with mighty voice the saving virtues of their piousness and labeled them progressive legislation. Noise was taken for merit and they all went into the legislative hopper many of them to emerge in the shape of statutory enactments. Thereupon the people discovered their thinker had been running on an eccentric and they didn't want any repair of the damaged social unit, they didn't want any uplifting by your boat straps, they'd just been yelling themselves hoarse, but anybody was crazy to think they wanted such fool stuff. Thereupon a rude impingement was enacted by them upon the fellows who believed they were really a-wanting, with the result that today there are 5,089 fellows, hoping against hope, that the civil service cloak will not be sliced into ribbons, while 83,757 other fellows each murderously demanding that they be granted the privilege of scattering the ashes of its carcass to the furthest winds that blow. And in the place of the progressive, the social amender and the portentous up-lifter, we have at Columbus, the reactionary, the lobbyist, "the milkier", the red-lighter and worse. But you don't hear any representatives of the interests lamenting business is being ruined and the people themselves don't give a darn, so what's the diff!

NEARING A REALITY.

The most satisfying news in The Times these days are the details of the execution of contracts for the construction of the interurban line to Ironton. With the announcement today of the bidders who secured the construction work, these will be practically completed. In a few days, therefore, we can expect to see actual work begun on a project, which for years has been under consideration and the completion of which will be "a consummation most devoutly desired." Portsmouth, though of a recent period making splendid progress, has been hampered considerably through lack of proper traffic service. The interurban will materially improve this and as it is, probably, the short forerunner of another line or two, its importance can scarcely be overstated. It will make us feel more like a city and as towns feel so are they.

We miss a guess if the Willis administration be not fixing up before hand an excuse for a big tax levy.

WHY CERTAINLY NOT.

A MAN AND HOUSEWORK.

(Youngstown Telegram.)
Willow Point, N. Y., has been placed on the map by a man who failed to support his family and was given the option of doing house work or going to the penitentiary for one year. He elected to do the house work but after nine months of pot-walloping, dusting, washing, sewing and setting the milk bottle on the porch, he stole back to the judges and asked for the worst, if there was any such thing.

With a "Here-I-am-judge-please-hang-me" expression he begged to be sent to the penitentiary where the worst he could get was hard labor. He was accommodated and will now rest up for the remaining three months.

THE DIFFERENCE.

(New Castle News.)
A dog is a dog. A cur is a person who circulates stories concerning a woman's character.

AIR PUMPERS.

(New Castle Herald.)
A Wisconsin man was kept alive for weeks by pumping air into him. And there are hundreds of men in this land who are kept alive for years by pumping air into someone else.

A certain county in West Virginia has every election pledged its representative to vote for an excise tax on gas, oil and coal. Surprising! Not a bit. This particular county is one in the state, strange to say, where there is no coal mine, no oil drill and no gas well. The essence of statesmanship is ever to make some one else bear the burden of government; the game of politics to make each voter believe some other one is paying his tax bills.

Just as if the voters hadn't had enough, to say nothing of himself, Bill Sulzer announces he is going to run again at the next election.

Looks like the Germans were a little quicker than Kitchener thought and the British are having some real fight out out for them with the first of May yet six weeks off.

Josephus Daniels says the navy is now at its most efficient fighting trim of its history. Does anybody believe that makes peace more certain?

Come to think of it, what use on earth is a big navy now-a-days? There hasn't been as much sea fighting in this whole European trouble as the Merrimac and Monitor did together in "the late unpleasantness," now happily a half century past.

It is a sad commentary upon the administration of affairs in this section when a private citizen has to employ men at his own expense to fix up main traveled roads. It looks like there ought to be some removals from office.

THE ADVENTURES OF MINNIE MONKEY

When Minnie Monkey found herself within the circus tent, She said: "I know I'll never get away. I wish that all the children in the whole wide world could know how very bad it feels to disobey."

The Circus Man said: "Come along I'm going to teach you tricks. The first thing you will learn to walk a rope; And next I'll teach you how to dance and how to beat a drum. You won't be long in learning them, I hope."

So Minnie practiced very hard, and soon the Circus Man said: "That is all you'll need to do today. Until it's time for you to eat I think that you may go in with the other animals and play."

He took her to a smaller tent, and though she was so scared, Miss Minnie Monkey had to stop and laugh. She saw all sorts of animals she'd never seen before, The striped zebra and the tall giraffe.

And as she stood and looked at them she heard somebody say: "Good gracious, child, what are you doing here? I'll bet a pint of peanuts you have run away from home. You must get back there instantly, my dear."

And Minnie nearly died of joy to hear a voice she knew. You see it was her Uncle Chimpanzee. "I'm very sure your mother doesn't know that you are here. I'll take you back at once to her," said he.

The animals all gathered round and said: "Oh, yes, but how? The Circus Man will never let you go." The plan that Minnie's uncle had for getting her away I'll tell tomorrow if you care to know.

In the presence of an unusually large attendance of the membership, Aurora Lodge, No. 48, F. & A. M., conferred the degree of Master Mason on a class of two candidates, Thursday evening. The ritualistic work was splendidly exemplified by the officers of the lodge.

On next Thursday evening, the annual inspection of the lodge will be made by the district lecturer, Hugh Lynch, of Chillicothe. This will be followed by a banquet and the presentation of jewels to the sixteen past masters of the lodge who had not heretofore been so honored.

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

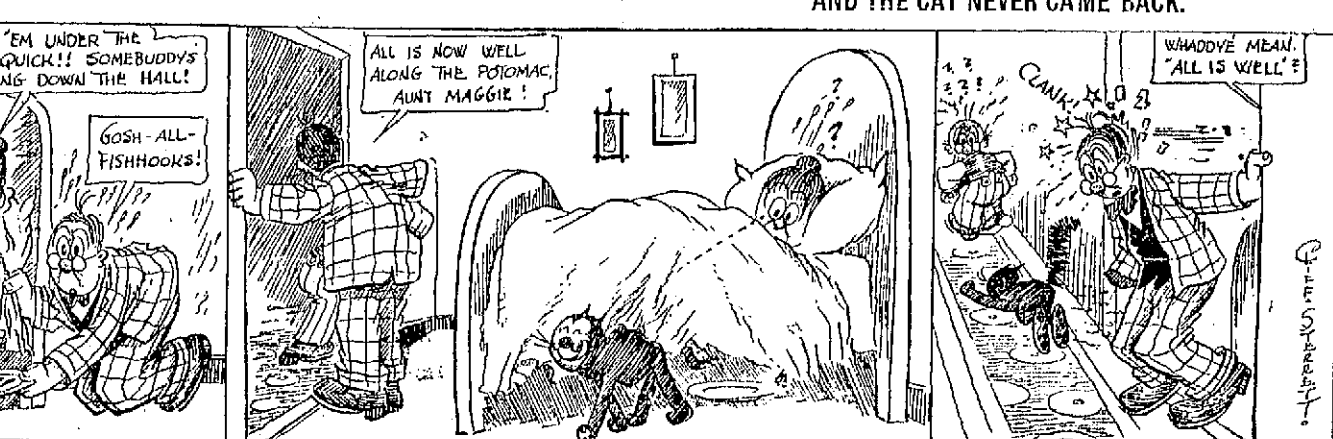

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fumes and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour to or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effecting and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

C. & O. DETECTIVE SHOT BY NEGRO

MURDER PLOT OF HOBOES SEEMS TO BE REAL MENACE

In a three cornered running pistol fight staged in the C. & O. yards at Lindley, W. Va., at 10:50 Thursday night, George Lenz, special agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and who is well known all along the line, was shot in the left leg, left arm and left index finger by a negro named Wright, who escaped. William Parsons, who was with Wright, and is also colored, was shot three times and probably fatally injured. Lenz was here investigating the Baneau mystery, and is known by all the local city and county officers.

It will be recalled that General Claim Agent L. J. Scherer was shot by a hobo while near Covington, Va., early in December. For several days Scherer was at the point of death. He is now slowly recovering from injury. The hobo lodged in his abdomen. The gunner was later located, found guilty and given a long prison sentence.

On December 6 Detective James A. Baneau was shot and killed while near the Kendall avenue crossing in the East End. At that time a story was printed that a concerted attempt was being made to wipe out railway detectives and from the fact that one was mortally wounded and two seriously wounded by hobo's would tend to strengthen this theory.

Lenz, detected Wright and Parsons in the Lindley yards and it is supposed that when he approached them a pistol fight ensued. A number of shots were exchanged as Lenz was shot three times and Parsons was shot three times.

Wright, who shot Lenz, is five feet and eight inches tall, has brown skin and curly hair. He is said to weigh about 170 pounds and wore a new suit of headlight overalls and a black cap. He was headed west when last seen.

Detectives and C. & O. agents on the various divisions have been furnished with a description of Wright and every effort will be made to apprehend him.

Lenz is a resident of Huntington and is well known there.

CONTROVERSY WITH THE NICOLA CO. IS TAKEN UP

Previously agreed restrictions that were announced from the chair had the effect of limiting the proceedings, suppressing pent-up feelings and otherwise moderating what had threatened to be a lively adjourned session of city council Thursday night.

There was no misunderstanding of the chair's clear and pointed statement of council's position regarding the controversy over the Nicola Building company's demands for a final settlement on its new water works contract and whatever else entered into the same and interested parties who wished to give vent to personal grievances had to restrain themselves until after the close of the meeting.

Will To Hear Two Questions

President Osborn said that with a view to making the proceedings as brief as possible and in order that the matter be properly submitted council was willing to listen or entertain two questions, viz:

First—An application on the part of a contractor for the approval of changes in plans said to have been made for a portion of its division of the work and that the hearing of same be restricted to records or any explanations that may be made by the former board of control and the present board having charge of the progress of the work.

Second—An application for an adoption of an ordinance making an appropriation and that it is the unanimous sense of council not to consider such until it hears the approval of the board of control and that council is not in any way interested at this time or in any future time whether the alleged change in costs is more or less; that this is purely administrative work and without council's jurisdiction or control; to ask council to do otherwise is extreme and unreasonable.

Council's Attitude Correctly Stated

Assured that he had correctly stated council's attitude the chair ruled that the hearing must be restricted to one or the other of both of the questions, at the same time according Judge A. Z. Blair the privilege of the floor as the legal representative for the Nicola company.

The judge said that such was the purpose of his request for the meeting, that he was merely trying to get a line on what the officers desired and what the proper proceedings were to pursue. He asked for an opinion as to the proper time to present the subject and if council desired the former board of control to give expressions in writing or appear in person. President Osborn assured him that council would be willing to hear any oral statement or receive any statement signed by the former board. Judge Blair then said he understood that the Nicola company's work is completed and asked if council was ready to take up the matter of a change made in the plans.

"I presume this was the purpose of the meeting; we want to go further than the presidents of the boards of control and would like to hear from all of the members," said the chair.

Judge Blair retired to an ante room and after some telephoning reported to council it was impossible to locate the members of the former board but suggested that both L. Brant, of the Nicola company and Engineer J. P. Witmer be heard.

Conditions Were Reviewed By Brant

Mr. Brant reviewed in detail the conditions that his company encountered when it came to driving the intake tunnel. He said the soil was such that had they continued as originally started they would have undermined the whole building site. Various experts were brought here. Mr. Jones, who had charge of the work, has since passed away. Reference was made that we were proceeding wrong and we insisted that the records should be cleared up some," continued Mr. Brant. "It was decided to go ahead with the work and the pay should be adjusted on a case-by-case basis. Engineer Brown failed to appear having been delayed by a piece of work. The city administration quit but the tunnel had to be changed. We had the air on ready to drive the well. He assured us reached that the tunnel should be changed. It would be a mistake not to go ahead with the work. The old board met with the new board. We had received a wire that the extra work had been authorized.

NICOLA CO'S CLAIM
The Nicola Company of Pittsburgh has prepared a claim for extras amounting to something over $28,000 but is said to be willing to settle for $25,000. This is exclusive of the $13,493, the amount of the estimate held in reserve by the city pending the successful completion and operation of its subdivision. The total amount previously paid to the Nicola company was $80,039.32 of which $5,904.32 was for extra work.

We wrote for the order but did not receive it. We, however, proceeded with the work in good faith, put our money into it. The foundation of building gave way and we met in joint session with the old and new board. The old board stated there would be an equitable settlement. It was further agreed that a detailed cost sheet be kept, which we did. It is a correct statement from our books and subject to audit. There has been some criticism about small items but the sheet takes the small as well as the big items. There has been some misunderstanding about expenses charged against the city. What we took away such as jacks, compressors, etc., the city has been given due credit."

Looked For An Equitable Settlement

"We had been led to believe we were going to get an equitable settlement but have never gained any headway. We met with the board yesterday but were directed to council. We have been told that the city is not legally bound to consider this. That may be true but it is admitted that the city is morally bound and moral laws are superior in many respects. We are not here talking for money but for justice—equitable settlement. It was a misunderstanding to drive that tunnel. Picked men were engaged and the work was so hazardous throughout that had there been any loss of life it would have been difficult to secure men to take their places. You certainly must realize that we performed exceptional service for the city there and it seems to me that there ought to be a starting point somewhere, enough gray matter to start this in the right way. We want somebody to say yes or no and should have the satisfaction of knowing one way or other. I'll make the statement freely that we are brainwashed fellows and will meet you in the right sort of way."

Engineer Witmer Gives His Story

Engineer Witmer was next called upon and said in part: "Compressed Air Proposition. The contracts provided for a 36-inch cast iron pipe from the head of the river into the intake well. During the sinking of the well it was plainly seen that the material was such that it would be impossible to drive a tunnel through it without compressed air. I so expressed myself. The contractors with our consent substituted the work to Chisholm & Sons, whom I consider the most expert in the country in this particular work. They still insisted it could be done. They started but the whole side of the embankment and building site commenced caving and it was impossible to pump out the water and keep the sand back. It was thoroughly demonstrated that it was a compressed air proposition. Water there saturated through all of the ground and sand in through the basin. The air locks were installed but it was impossible to get the pipes through them.

Claimed Verbal Agreement Rendered

The contractors stood to lose $10,000 as it would have cost them $100 per day to run it. Now soon as the compressed air was started the change from a cast iron pipe to a concrete tunnel became necessary for it would have been a physical impossibility to get the cast iron pipe in. I don't know that it could be adjusted on a case-by-case basis. The change came from necessity. The contractors were going to quit but the tunnel had to be changed. A verbal agreement was made. The matter of overtime charge by the engineer had been objected.

ed into the controversy. President Osborn interrupted him by saying that council was probably not interested in that but Mr. Witmer insisted it was pertinent and that he simply wished to make the statement that he made no claim against any contractor or the city for overtime. He had had sufficient trouble and embarrassment and did not want it enmeshed, so that any talk of him seeking extra compensation should be entirely eliminated.

Wants It Presented In Legal Form

President Osborn now gave it as his judgment that the best way to get the Nicola claims before council in a proper form was to submit some legislation. Said he: "If it's proper that this council should do something, the former council should have done but neglected to do then put it in formal shape and submit it as prepared legislation bearing the approval of the board of control and if it is shown that the board acted in good faith this council will be willing to go some distance in carrying out the agreement if presented upon satisfactory evidence but, until that's done, council will have nothing to do with it."

Judge Blair said that this was what they were trying to do, ascertain council's views in regard to the matter.

Solicitor Wants Then In Writing

City Solicitor Stanley McCall suggested that Engineer Witmer reduce the statements they had verbally made to writing and some verbal expression he secured from the old board and then have the new or present board pass on the work and then place all of the written reports on file. The administrative duties, he said, should be carried out by the board of control. The initiative should come from the board.

President Osborn again called attention to the fact that all council can do is what the old council could have done, namely ratify the change in plans but not on the statement of any contractor but upon the approval of the board of control.

Solicitor McCall suggested that the old board be summoned together to meet with Mr. Witmer and sign a statement vouching that the change had been ordered and present the same to the new board.

It was decided to hold an adjourned session next Wednesday evening for further consideration of the claims.

Says Control Board Will Not Approve

Following the close of the meeting the mayor declared the present board would never approve the change in plans and that it might as well be understood as settled. This would leave the whole situation "dead." It was impressed upon him by Solicitor McCall and others to which he retorted "Well, dead it shall remain."

Wilhelm Calls Time On Ordinance

An ordinance accepting the plan of the Buch & Snyder addition at East Portsmouth and dedicating the streets and alleys was on a fair way to pass under suspension of the rules when City Engineer Wilhelm called a halt. He said it had just occurred to him that the north line running parallel with Gallia "pike" ought first be checked up by measurement to determine whether or not it encroached upon the city line. Service Director Gargens said the owners of the addition were anxious to get on the tax duplicate and that the engineer should have said something about the matter during the day. This brought from him the reply that he had other work claiming his attention and ordinarily never raised such points about plats but had a private reason in this instance. Judge Osborn and Member Shump under the circumstances did not wish to vote on the acceptance without the ordinance going to a second reading and it was laid over for the adjourned meeting. Meanwhile the engineer will make his measurements.
